VELIKI TEDEN

Pet korakov k bistvu

Višek postnega časa predstavlja veliki teden, ki je pravzaprav vstop v velikonočno praznovanje. Vabim vas, da z dejavnim sodelovanjem pri bogoslužjih pomagamo sebi in drugim bolje razumeti skrivnosti, ki jih obhajamo. Naj bo tudi to besedilo petih misli kot pet korakov, ki jih bomo storili v tem tednu.

Cvetna nedelja

Zelenje je služilo pozdravu Jezusa. Naj bo letošnji blagoslov zelenja pravzaprav blagoslov naše želje, da bi nas Jezus opazil, da bi nas videl, da bi se v tem tednu z njim srečali na njegovi poti trpljenja in vstajenja.

Veliki četrtek

Obed, drugi korak, ko me nekdo povabi k sebi. Pomeni, da ga spoznam, kako živi, kje živi. Z menoj je pripravljen deliti nekaj intimnega. Jezus še več, ne le intimnega, Jezus z menoj deli samega sebe, daje se v hrano, kruh postane njegovo telo in vino njegova kri, za nas in naše odrešenje. Drugi korak, živi v polnosti za nas, želi v polnosti živeti v nas.

Veliki petek

Trpljenje, tretji korak. Prijateljstvo ni več zgolj formalnost, ampak postane res pravo in krepko, ko smo povezani ne le v lepih, pač pa tudi v tragičnih in težkih trenutkih. Tu pa gre še za večjo tragiko, saj je v ozadju tragika greha. In on, ki nima greha, je to trpljenje človeka vzel na svoje rame, to prijateljstvo Boga s človekom je prešlo iz formalnosti, ki jo je predstavljala Postava, v res pravo, krepko, dobesedno, na križ pribito prijateljstvo.

Velika sobota

Odsotnost, četrti korak. Ostati zvest, ko nekoga ni, pomeni, da nanj ne le misliš, ampak da živiš v veri, da je. Tudi v smrti in navidezni odsotnosti je Bog še vedno povsem za nas. Z naše strani pa na tej točki odpove vse razumno, vse čuteče, smrt je smrt, ostane samo vera. Zreti v truplo in ohranjati zavest o življenju je norost in pohujšanje, torej vera, ki jo Pavel opiše, ko opisuje križ. Izkaz vere je molitev ob božjem grobu, pomeni našo zvestobo Bogu, ko odpove tisto, na kar se zanašamo, česar se v človeškosti oklepamo.

Velika noč

Iskreno veselje, peti, zadnji korak. To je veselje, ki se izkazuje v zmedenosti, v teku, v hitenju, vse to opišejo evangelisti. Iskreno veselje, ko smo podobni naravi spomladi, ki potrebuje le še kanček sonca, da se razbohoti v vsem svojem sijaju. Ta korak pride sam po sebi, ko dozori naša notranjost, ko Kristus razbije grob greha in to mrtvo telo postane živo, sveto in to, za kar je bilo ustvarjeno, ko postane tempelj Svetega Duha, v katerem odmeva aleluja! (po prispevku J. Koželja žpk iz Preske)

WHAT IS PALM SUNDAY?

Palm Sunday is celebrated the week before Easter. Catholics carry blessed palm branches into church with them - this is in remembrance of when Jesus entered Jerusalem. The story of Jesus' death and his Passion, are read as the Gospel. Sunday Mass on Palm Sunday actually includes two readings from the Gospels. We hear also about when Jesus entered Jerusalem at the start of Mass.

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!"

After attending Mass it's common to display your palm! Some place it behind a crucifix. Since palm branches are a sacramental item they should not be thrown away. You can return your branch to the church where it will be burned for ashes the following Ash Wednesday.

It's also common to deep clean your home on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday. This tradition arises from the Jewish custom of preparing the home for Passover. Holy Week is also a great time to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

WHAT IS THE CHRISM MASS?

Many dioceses celebrate the Chrism Mass on the morning of Holy Thursday or possibly on another day during Holy Week (Tuesday, April 4th in St. Michael Cathedral at 11.am). "Chrism" refers to one of the oils used during different Sacraments. During the Chrism Mass, the Oil of the Sick (used during the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick), the Oil of Catechumens (used during the Sacrament of Baptism), and the Chrism oil are consecrated by the Bishop. There is also a renewal of priestly promises during the Chrism Mass. Traditionally every priest within a diocese attends this Mass. The Bishop also requests that the laity of the diocese pray for him and the priests of the diocese.

WHAT IS HOLY THURSDAY?

Holy Thursday is the first day of the Easter Triduum, the most sacred days of the Catholic faith. It begins with the Mass of the Lord's Supper, which commemorates the Last Supper celebrated by Jesus and his disciples on the Jewish holiday of Passover. It's not a Holy Day of

John 3:16

Obligation, but many Catholics attend Mass. During this Mass, the priest washes the feet of some members of the parish in memory of Jesus washing the feet of his disciples. It was during the Last Supper that Jesus taught his disciples that the Eucharist is truly His Body and Blood. Jesus' disciples were the first Catholic priests. So during the Last Supper, he taught them the importance of the Eucharist, and why priests celebrate Jesus' sacrifice during every Mass. Because of this, the Last Supper is also significant because it was the beginning of the priesthood.

WHY IS IT CALLED GOOD FRIDAY?

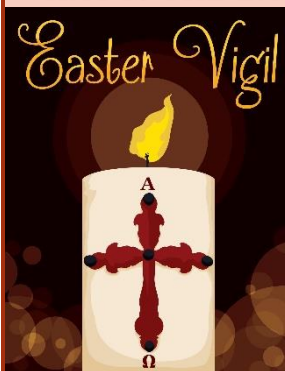

Good Friday commemorates the day Jesus died and saved us from our sins. His death and resurrection on Easter is the most important event, which is why it's called "good". On this day Catholics fast and remember the suffering of Jesus when he died on the cross. It's the only day of the year in which Catholic Mass is not celebrated. Instead, many Catholic Churches have a Stations of the Cross prayer service, as well as a Veneration of the Cross service. It's traditionally a day of solemn prayer.

Maintain an element of silence throughout Good Friday. Don't listen to music in the car and turn off distractions. Work to intentionally make it a day of quiet and reflection. Move a crucifix to a place of prominence in your home. The hours of noon until three in the afternoon are especially solemn, as this was the time of Jesus' crucifixion. Attend a Veneration of the Cross service and/or Stations of the Cross prayer service during this time. And read the Passion accounts in the Gospel (or watch a movie adaptation) to reflect on the agony of Jesus' sacrifice for all of us.

WHAT IS THE EASTER VIGIL?

The Easter Vigil Mass is the most important Mass in the Catholic Church. The Easter Vigil is the Mass celebrated on Holy Saturday and it begins the Easter celebrations of Jesus' resurrection. It begins with a bonfire outside of the church, and Mass attendees light candles that slowly illuminate the church. Many readings from the Old Testament that foretold Jesus' death and resurrection are read. It's also the day that new catechumens, those who are entering the Catholic Church, receive the Sacraments for the first time.
